

MINARETS

Hamilton Turlesoy

Named 'Minarets', which originally describes the distinctive conical crown structure of Islamic mosques, the handmade glass decanters are inspired by scrap glass pieces found at a glassblowing workshop in London. The domed caps can double as a glass to hold drinks.

